For State Complaints:

Once you are certain that the complaint includes all required information, you may submit (file) it with the:

New Hampshire Department of Education
ATT: Special Education Complaints Office
101 Pleasant Street
Concord NH 03301-3860.

A copy of the Federal regulations that describe the procedures for filing a complaint with the New Hampshire Department of Education (NHDOE) may be obtained by request at (603) 271-3075. If you have any questions, please contact the Complaints office at (603) 271-3075.

According to federal regulations, a complaint must:

1. Include specified information (at the top of this form about the person filing the complaint and the student on whose behalf the complaint is being filed)
2. Be in writing (no specific form required: complainants may use this form, the form provided by the NH DOE, or submit a complaint on plain paper, stationary, etc.);
3. Be signed;
4. Include a statement that a public agency (usually a school district) has violated a federal or state special education requirement (You do not have to quote the specific requirement that you believe was violated, but you must explain what you believe the school has done wrong, for example, “the teachers are not following my child’s IEP.”);
5. Include the facts on which the allegation is based (Describe what happened to lead you to believe the school has violated special education requirements and how that affects your child, for example, “My child’s IEP says he will be seated in the front of the classroom, but when I visited his classroom yesterday, he was seated in the back of the classroom. Because of his vision and hearing problems, he needs to sit close to the blackboard and the teacher.”);
6. Include how the alleged violation has affected the student
7. Include the outcome or resolution sought; and
8. Must allege a violation that occurred not more than one year before the date filed with the NH Department of Education.
